

Curriculum Vitae Giovanni Albani, MD

Via Reginetta Francioli 2 b- Vignone (Verbania) Italy,

Email: g.albani@auxologico.it

Degree in Medicine and Surgery University of Pavia, Italy, in 1992 ( Prof.M.Cazzola)

School of Neurophysiology Neurological National Institute “Casimiro Mondino” of Pavia, Italy, in 1997 (Dott.C.Pacchetti, Prof.E.Martignoni, Prof.G.Sandrini).

Visiting Researcher in Hospital Clinico (1990) and Bellvitge in Barcelona (Spain) (1992) (Prof.Eduardo Tolosa), and Neurologische Clinic University of Zurich, “Paul Sherrer Institute” Nuclear Medicine Centre in Villigen (Switzerland) (Prof.KL Leenders) and “Balgrist” Swiss Paraplegic Zentrum (Prof.Volker Dietz) in Zurich (from 1995 to 1997).

Chief of Service of Neurophysiology in Clinical Hospital “Beato Matteo” Vigevano, Italy (1998-2005).

Clinical Assistant and Senior Researcher Consultant of the Department of Neuroscience ( Verbania-Piancavallo, Istituto Auxologico Italiano, IRCCS), (2000 to date).

Head of the Service of Neurophysiology of the Rehabilitation Clinical Hospital “Le Terrazze” in Cunardo-Varese (Italy) (2002 to date).

Fields of Interests: Neurorehabilitation, Movement Analysis, Peripheral Nervous System, Behavior Addictions, New Frontiers of MDS (microbiome, immunitary system), to help who needs help in a creative and joyful way.

Author of many Pubmed cited scientific papers, reviewer and in the Editorial Board of many scientific international journals.

He collaborated on the documentary about Parkinson’s disease “SWIM FOR GOOD” produced by University of Munchen (Germany) and on the documentary “Tango della Vita” , directed by Erica Liffredo He is the creator of the Charity sport event Parkinson CUP and of the updating theoretical-practical course of MyWAY CAMPUS for Parkinson’s disease patients and their caregivers.